The Canyon Chapter of the National Charity League, Inc. held its second annual holiday boutique and open house at the home of Don and Melanie Schneider in Coto de Caza. Members collected blankets for the homeless shelter Dorothy Day and Isaiah House, canned goods for San Francisco Solano Food Bank in Rancho Santa Margarita and Christmas gifts for Operation Help a Hero. Boutique vendors also donated to the 16 philanthropies supported by the Canyon Chapter. The event chairperson was Katherine Moody and committee members included Karen Batson, Stacey Detels, Suzanne Learn and Julie Carey.

SINGING FOR A CAUSE

Country singer Stefani Rose of Ladera Ranch won the December SingerUniverse "Best Vocalist of the Month" Competition for her performance of her song "Reaching Out." SingerUniverse is an online music magazine with 70,000 visitors each month. Rose co-wrote the song to raise funds and awareness for epilepsy because her son Niko suffers from the disease. Recently, she entertained at the Rose Bowl for 2,000 walkers who participated in the Walk to End Epilepsy. During the walk, she helped the Epilepsy Foundation of Greater Los Angeles to raise more than $250,000.
