New Country Music Artist Stefani Rose Launches Website

Ladera Ranch, CA – September 30, 2012 – Stefani Rose, a new country artist, announced today the launch of a StefaniRoseMusic.com, a website dedicated to improving conversations with her fans and establishing a branding and direct sales platform for her music.

“This new website helps me reach out and talk with my fans about upcoming performances, charity efforts, music and life,” said Stefani Rose. “In addition, I am very dedicated to giving a voice to an illness that has been ignored or misunderstood, but affects a huge number of Americans, including my son. End-Epilepsy.org is featured on my site, and we’re collecting donations on the site for the Walk to End Epilepsy in late October.”

Stefani Rose’s debut single Reaching Out will be released on October 2, 2012 as the title song on her introspective and inspirational EP, Reaching Out. This EP was recorded over the summer at Omni Studios in Nashville, and represents an outstanding freshman effort by Stefani Rose.

Stefani Rose is a country music singer/songwriter born in Vegas, and influenced throughout her life by the great talents of Dolly Parton, Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson, and more contemporary artists like Little Big Town, Sugarland, Reba, and Martina McBride. All proceeds from her debut single, Reaching Out, will be donated to the Epilepsy Foundation (end-epilepsy.org) to raise awareness of a disease that affects over 3 million Americans of all ages. 1 in 26 people will be diagnosed with Epilepsy at some point in their lives, but few talk about it - help us End Epilepsy by purchasing or donating directly.
